WHO WE ARE

We take pride in being a highly creative event consultancy providing a fresh alternative to the standard corporate offering

We design and produce all type of virtual and live events, source outstanding hospitality offerings, and curate large & small scale experiences for a diverse range of clients.

Our directors have over 25 years' experience servicing leading luxury and lifestyle brands, as well as working at the creative edge of award winning multi-arts festival programming.

WHAT WE DO

Whether your objective is to motivate, engage or simply delight, we create powerful and compelling shared experiences which encourage participation and facilitate collaboration, creating a space where relationships can flourish.

We are on top of the trends and like to think outside of the box to create inspiring and engaging experiences to get people talking, and which also help you foster a unique culture.

We are experts at seasonal parties, unique team building propositions and client hospitality, and curating transformative wellbeing experiences – in real life and online – has become a key focus and passion over the past two years.

KEY SERVICES

Virtual Events & Mailers

DIY maker sessions including craft, food + drink, self care, and memorable online experiences with hosts, food & drink packages, and surprises along the way

Workshops & Experiences

From one off sessions based around a seasonal theme or special topic and charity fundraiser days, to ongoing wellbeing programming throughout the year

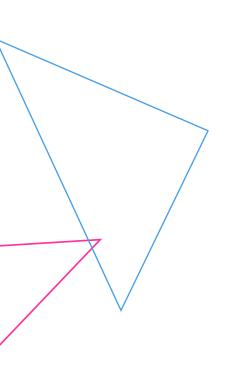

Immersive Parties

Highly visual and often a complete sensory indulgence, we love nothing more than bringing a concept to life through interactive set design and performance

Corporate Festival Hospitality

Festivals are an often overlooked opportunity to treat guests to a unique day out they won't forget while getting a huge amount of value for your money, and we are experts at creating bespoke experiences
